

HOW WAS TENNIS TODAY?

Now you will know!

Rule 26, Case 3 states that if a ball strikes a bird flying over the court, the point should be replayed.

The following event took place in 2002 at the Australian Open during a doubles match. A bird chased a moth into Rod Laver Arena and was struck and killed by a player. One of the opponents rushed to the falling bird and gave the last rites. After the bird was cleared away, the point was replayed.

Keep checking for monthly tidbits re the world of tennis.